CRUISE COMPASS

SERENADE OF THE SEAS®

DAY 7 Saturday, November 3, 2018
Bridgetown, Barbados

IN BRIDGETOWN, EXPERIENCE A UNIQUE BRITISH AND CARIBBEAN FEEL.
By the time the Brits arrived in the early 17th century, the indigenous Arawaks were long gone. Yet a crucial piece of evidence remained... a primitive bridge. Later on, after a new bridge replaced the old one in the very same spot, the area became known as Bridgetown. Like so many other Caribbean islands at the time, Barbados adopted a plantation culture, cultivating tobacco, cotton and the prized sugar cane. The English colony's sugar-driven economy, coupled with an incredible defence system – 26 British forts on the coast – led to its growth. And though Barbados gained full independence in 1966, the British influence is still very strong in the commonwealth – from the chocolate and china to the national pastime. Cricket, of course!
In and around the capital city of Bridgetown, there's plenty to do and see. Wildlife enthusiasts can tour the Reserve, home to the Green Monkey, or snorkel the sheltered waters of Turtle Bay. Shopaholics can find excellent buys on jewellery, watches and Barbadian rum. And if you just want to relax, head to the beaches where the shady palms sway to the Calypso beat.
